

OOIDA Asks California Governor to Act on ATC

By Amy McMahon

Jim Johnston, the president and chief executive officer of the Owner-Operator Independent Drivers' Association (OOIDA), has asked Gov. Schwarzenegger (CA) to include the installation of automatic temperature compensation (ATC) devices with any legislation addressing vapor loss on fuel pumps.

Legislation is currently being considered in California regarding locks on fuel pumps that would prevent vapor loss.

To read Jim Johnston's April 13 letter to Gov. Schwarzenegger, click here. To read more about upcoming action on ATC, click here.